FOREWORD

The 1965 Carontawan is published to provide a remembrance for all of us who inhabit these hallowed halls at Mansfield. There have been moments of happiness and sadness that will forever live in our hearts. Mansfield has given us much—an education, training for a profession of which to be proud, and many memories and lasting friendships.

The experiences each new year brings—moving into a new dorm, joining the different college activities, and learning many new ideas and philosophies have brought us all a bit closer to our goal in life. We, as students, are well aware of what M.S.C. means to us. We have pride in her regal splendor and grace that adorns the "eastern hill." As we leave to embark upon the future, we will be inspired to remember our days as students at Mansfield State College.

Mansfield's Delta Phi Alpha, the National German Honorary Fraternity, seeks to recognize excellence in the study of German and to provide a goal for higher scholarship.

Their aims consist of promotion of the study of the German language, literature, and civilization and to emphasize those aspects of German life and culture which are of universal value to man's eternal search for peace and truth.

The required qualifications for membership in this fraternity are: a minimum of twelve semester hours of college German; a minimum standing of eighty-five percent in the last preceding six semesters, and an overall standing of eighty-five percent.

GAMMA THETA UPSILON

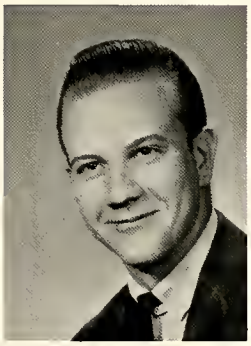

Mr. Robert Farrelt
Advisor

Gamma Theta Upsilon is a national fraternity which recognizes ability and accomplishments in the field of geography. The fraternity is a source of loans and scholarship funds, and offers lectures, films, or slides at informative bi-monthly meetings.

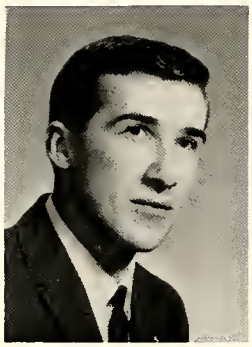

Qualifications for membership states that a student must have completed at least six semester hours in geography and must have a major or minor in geography. Prospective members must have also sustained a quality point average of 2.5 in geography and an overall quality point average of the same.

The Alpha Beta Chapter of Kappa Omicron Phi based their theme on "Professionalism" this year. The organization sold mums for Homecoming and Parents' Day. In November the members attended a concert in Elmira. Among the other activities in which this group participated were a panel discussion by college faculty and a dinner with an international theme.

Selection for membership is made among sophomores who have completed eight semester hours of home economics and who have attained a "B" average.

Pictures to be taken, layouts to be drawn, and patrons to be contacted filled most of our free hours. Our better than average, hardworking staff helped to make these tasks seem easier.

Throughout the first semester the staff worked diligently to meet our deadlines in October, December, and January. Our hard endeavors finally paid dividends as our final shipment went to press four days earlier than the previous year.

With any publication there are always those who criticize while others always praise. We have done our best to capture what we feel is MANSFIELD. For this annual we make no apologies.

National social fraternity, Phi Sigma Epsilon, is represented on the Mansfield campus by Phi Nu Chapter. Among its past accomplishments, Phi Nu has successfully captured first place in the Homecoming float contest for two years and has placed first in the Grecian Sing for three years. This year Phi Nu took second place in the Grecian Sing, also participated in the Homecoming float contest, and was a part of the intramural football and basketball program.

Phi Sigma Epsilon seeks to encourage culture, foster college spirit, and build intimate social ties within its brotherhood. It also desires to promote a closer bond among men students of higher educational institutions so that a more intimate fellowship with those dedicated to education is established, and a better understanding of men may be effected.

Membership in Phi Sigma Epsilon is limited to second semester freshmen and upperclassmen with academic averages of at least 2:00.

During the 1964 football season, Mansfield's majorette squad amazed half-time spectators with a variety of performances including two batons, fire, and featured routines. The six perky young women danced to Oklahoma, whisked through a lively arrangement of Buckle Down Winsocki, and climaxed the season by introducing their flaming batons. This was the first time that the whole squad had tried the flames.

Donna Marinkov, the soloist, also showed her skill as she twirled her flaming batons throughout the year.

The wonderful world of FOOTBALL

Although the school keeps football in its proper place, nevertheless the sport, because of the spirit and fun it provides—win or lose, plays an important role on the Mansfield campus.

The season ended on a 4-4-1 note, which is a decent record in any man's league. '64 saw disappointments in the offensive unit but looked in wonder at the outstanding teamwork, determination, and skill of the defensive "Monsters." This unit played well over 75 per cent of each football contest, therefore, the opportunity to score was not on a one half basis. The defensive team always kept the Mounties in the game, even when the offense failed.

COURAGE . . . PERSEVERANCE . . . SELF-SACRIFICE . . .

The defensive unit, nicknamed the "Mountie Monsters" held their opponents to 117 points for the season. Led by senior line-backer, Bob Harcharek, "Monsters" held the powerhouse of West Chester S.C. scoreless until the end of the third period, and it held the S.C.C. champions, East Stroudsburg, to 21 points. The rugged defensive unit held the opposition to 102 yards per game rushing average.

Jack Bailey, a hard hitting pass defender, was put on the disabled list half way through the season with a fractured ankle.

Ken Deubler, team co-captain—quarterback.

A four man coaching staff, led by head coach, Bob "Tut" Moore, consists of Rod Kelchner, Melvin "Molly" Dry, and Dean of Student Affairs, Tom Costello.

Paul Chesney, team co-captain, offensiv guard, and defensive line-backer.

Top Photo—Mansfield State's number 19 has clear sailing as he sheds a Brockport State tackler and follows blockers Leavens (37), Givens (87), and Glennon (80) for an important ground gain.
Bottom—Frosh Q.B. leads the Underclassmen to victory in the '64 Spring Drills at Smythe Park. Score—Frosh, 7; Upperclassmen, 6.

The Mountaineer "Monsters", the M.S.C. defensive unit, converge on number 31 in a typical all-out effort of gang tackling.

Sprinter John Soprano meets a wall of opposition with no white to assist.

Muscling-down a shifty halfback, Dan O'Keefe helps prevent an enemy rally.

In only its second year of intercollegiate wrestling, Mansfield turned in a 5 - 4 - 1 season record and showed to the PSCC conference that in the very near future the Mounties will be the "team to beat" on the mats.

From the start of wrestling here at MSC, Coach Maurer has not shied away from stiff opposition, but has met it head on, as was shown by a wrestling schedule that included Lock Haven, Wilkes, Ithaca, and Bloomsburg. It was from these powerhouses that the 1964-65 Mountie grapplers saw their only defeats.

In addition to the dual meet schedule, our Mountaineers participated in the Rose Bowl of wrestling at Wilkes College, the PSCC championships at Lock Haven, the 4 - 1 tournament in Cleveland, Ohio, and ended their season by participating in the NAIA national tournament in Terre Haute, Indiana.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank all the people who have spent many long hours in an effort to help us meet our deadlines and make the 1965 Carontawan a success.

A special note of thanks is extended to Dr. Mildred Menge and Mr. Alfred Kjelgaard, our advisors, and to Mr. and Mrs. John McNaney for their aid to the photographic work in this publication.

Lynn, Ken, and Donna
